Professor Patricia MacCormack - ARU

I think what McCormick does with this book is brilliant. In what seems like a simple first-person lyrical style that is probably quite complicated to pull off, she provides a matter-of-fact account of a young girl sold into sex slavery. The evolution from innocent mountain girl to jaded prostitute at age 13 is hard to read and yet the personal ...

but happy girl living with her family in a mountain hut in Nepal. When a Himalayan monsoon washes away her family's crops, Lakshmi must find a job to support her family.

Sold: Study Guide | SparkNotes

In Sold, Lakshmi has a hard life on a mountaintop in Nepal—her family's rice paddy is at the mercy of the weather, and her stepfather gambles away what little money they have. For the family to survive, her stepfather tells Lakshmi that she is going to the city to work as a maid—in actuality, though, he has sold her into prostitution.
